PAULA DAVEY

Studio Owner, Artistic Director, Choreographer, Adjudicator

Ms. Davey is, first and foremost, a sought out and multi-disciplined educator and adjudicator of dance who has trained and inspired countless students, from Recreational to Pre-professional, throughout her 47-year career in the Arts.

Ms. Davey is the owner and Artistic Director of the PAULA DAVEY DANCE SCHOOL, a business that has excelled in dance education for over 30 years. She feels confident that her long-time adjudicating career has been strengthened as a direct result.

Ms. Davey understands what it takes to “build a dancer” from the ground up, and takes pride in nurturing and mentoring students of all ages and levels of talent/dance objectives. Her belief that, “every child deserves the chance to dance” is what makes her stand out as an established educator.

Ms. Davey’s students have been the recipients of countless prestigious awards and scholarships, with many entering into full-time professional performance careers. Her qualified dance credentials include: LIFE member of the Canadian Dance Teachers Association (CDTA) in Classical Ballet, Tap and Jazz; Performing Arts Educators of Canada (PAEC) in Classical Ballet, Tap and Jazz; Professional Adjudicators Alliance (PAA); Certified Acro Dance Adjudicator; Dance Masters of America (DMATTS) TTP 4yr. Grad Program, specializing in Classical Ballet, Tap Jazz and a full member of Dance Masters of America (DMA) Canadian Chapter to name a few, and she remains diligent in keeping “current” by attending a variety of prestigious pro- development programs throughout Canada and the USA, all with the goal of educating and inspiring the dance community at large. Ms. Davey has earned herself the “Lifetime Membership Award” from the Canadian Dance Teachers Association through her thirty years of being a committed member. In 2018, the Paula Davey Dance School received the “Excellence In Business Award” from the Chamber of Commerce.

Ms. Davey’s choreographic works have also been widely recognized, and include the following endeavors: Full-Scale musical productions within her local and surrounding area; Fashion/Parade/Skating/Syncro-Swimming/Body Building and Equestrian-based events/trade shows; Olympic Torch Run (Large Group Choreo); Hollywood Stage (DISNEY), Time Square Flash Mobs (NYC); Canada’s Wonderland (Main Stage), and the list goes on!

Her dedication to dance, and mission to “Inspire and educate the younger generation, while instilling life-lasting values and goals within their pursuit of personal excellence” is a gift to our industry, and she truly looks forward to inspiring many dancers and pre-professionals in the future.

Ms. Davey always extends her heartfelt wishes of luck and confidence to every dancer who hits the stage – “Strive for personal bests from each and every performance; for it is then, that you FEEL and BE the ultimate Winner!”

Jesse Weafer

Jesse began his dance career at the early age of 6 at Jaymor School of Dancing in Aurora Ont. At age 12, he made his first professional debut in the Mirvish production of Jolson. Doctoral Student (Dance Education)

Melissa-Anne Bartrem is a passionate dancer, choreographer, dance educator and adjudicator. Her work in the dance industry has taken her across North America, Europe, Africa, Asia and South America. As a performer, Melissa has danced in Brazil as a production show dancer, live on tour with the famous Tihany Spectacular, South America's largest circus. Her previous performance credits have taken her on the high seas with Princess Cruises, a production show dancer for Casino Figueira da Foz, Portugal, with Patrice Marques Productions and a variety of projects throughout both London, England and Toronto, Canada which include stage, film, television, and live events. Melissa continues to work in the film and television industry in Toronto, as both an actor and dance professional. She can be seen in various projects, most recently; American Mystery and the hit TV series Paranormal 911.

Melissa currently resides in New York City part-time where she is pursuing a Doctoral degree in Dance Education and working as a research assistant at Teachers College, Columbia University. Melissa's research interests include challenging traditional dance pedagogy, culturally relevant teaching in post-secondary dance programs and motor learning theory as it relates to dance skill acquisition. She recently presented her current research at the 54th World Congress in Dance Research in Athens, Greece.

Melissa has an extensive teaching background supported by her academic achievements. She holds an undergraduate degree in Theatre and Performance Studies from The University of Toronto and a Master's degree in Dance Education, accredited though The University of Surrey, England. Melissa is a fully certified member of the Royal Academy of Dance (RAD) and the British Association of Teachers of Dancing (BATD). She holds memberships with the National Dance Education Organization (NDEO), The International Dance Council (CID) and Healthy Dancer Canada. Her continuing education includes training and certifications with various organizations such as Can Fit Pro, Paula Morgan Dance, Stott Pilates, Street Dance Canada, Harkness Center for Dance Injuries, Above Barre, Alixa Flexibility, the International Academy of Dance Adjudicators and the Acro Dance Adjudicators certification, just to name a few. Melissa has worked in both private sector studios with recreational and competitive students of all ages and levels, and in public schools as a guest artist.

Melissa is currently on faculty at Centennial College where she teaches Intro to Commercial Dance, Interdisciplinary Arts and Movement Studies as part of the Performing Arts Fundamentals and Theatre Arts programs. She is also appointed as an academic tutor for the RAD Certificate in Ballet Teaching Studies program, mentoring dance teachers beginning their careers in education. Melissa has the privilege of judging competitive dance across North America and teaching many master classes around the world for private studios, dance conventions and workshops. Most recently this work has taken her across Canada, Johannesburg, South Africa and Beijing and Shanghai, China.

Melissa is known for her infectious love of dance and looks forward to continuing to share her passion for the performing arts.
